$1,750 PAID FOR A SCHREYER.

"Wallachian Horseman" Brings Highest Price at Converse Sale.

1912 Special to The New York Times.

PHILADELPHIA, Penn., March 25.—Paintings formerly the property of the late John H. Converse were sold at the Philadelphia art galleries this afternoon, and brought good prices. The highest, $1,750, was paid for a canvas by Adolphe Schreyer, entitled "Wallachian Horseman." Another Schreyer, "Cossack Outposts in Winter," was sold for $250.

A typical Venetian view by Felix Zelm sold for $850, an ideal head by Jean Jacques Helmer brought $450, and for a good example of Daubigny, "A View at Villa d'Acray," $450 was paid. A still life by Antoine Vollon sold for $550. "Harbor Entrance," by Louise Gabriel Eugene, for $475; "Departure of the Espada," by Jules Worms, $260; "Avenged," by Isabey, $325, and Paul Jean Clay's "Calm on the Outer Maas," $275.

Terms and Conditions of Sale

- I. All bills payable in Cash before delivery.
- II. The highest bidder to be the buyer, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders the lot so in dispute, shall be immediately put up again and resold.
- III. The purchasers to give their names and addresses, and to pay down a cash deposit of at least 25 per cent. of the purchase money, or the whole if required, in default of which the lot or lots so purchased to be immediately put up again and resold.
- IV. The lots to be taken away at the buyer's expense and risk within twenty-four hours of the conclusion of the sale, and the remainder of the purchase money to be absolutely paid or otherwise settled for to the satisfaction of the manager on or before delivery, in default of which the undersigned will not hold themselves responsible if the lots be lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the purchaser; and no goods to be removed unless receipted bills are presented.
- V. No claims allowed after the removal of goods.
- VI. Articles are exposed for public examination one or more days, and are sold just as they are, without recourse.
- VII. Upon failure to comply with the above conditions, the money deposited in part payment shall belong to the managers as liquidated damages for purchaser's failure to complete the sale. All lots unclaimed within the time aforesaid, shall be resold at public or private sale, without further notice.
- VIII. The undersigned are in no manner connected with the business of the cartage or packing and shipping of purchases, and although they will afford to purchasers every facility for employing careful carriers and packers, they will not hold themselves responsible for the acts and charges of the parties engaged for such service.
